DEDICATION

To our classmates of '29<sup>1/2</sup>
who, having learned of the marvelous PROGRESS of the World through the ages, and particularly in our own wonderful century, now go forth eager to share in the great adventures of further Progress . . . . .

THIS MAROON AND WHITE
. . . . IS DEDICATED . . . .

"Morrie" Hovitz

Foreword

The beautiful mural paintings above the stage in the auditorium—Story of Progress—beautiful, most of all, because of the inspiration they have given the host of Austin students and teachers who have viewed them in the past fifteen years—these murals have furnished the theme of this annual and the motif for the art work embellishing it. Progress—the most fascinating story of the world—the thing that has made the world wonderful to live in this year and will make it even more wonderful next year. We have tried to make your annual a Book of Progress—the progress of four years of school work and fun and pledging ourselves to playing our parts in progress in years to come.

Above the dedication appears Joseph Salerno's reproduction of the semi-circular mural above the balcony in the south-east corner of the auditorium. He has used it to put our school motto into this book artistically.

George Wood very appropriately used the figure Progress viewing the Pageant, to begin the graduates' section.

The art editor, John Kausal worked out the figure of Education to introduce the division called "The School." Eleanore Herrington is responsible for the lovely reproduction of another part in the big mural which is used to head the division devoted to the Branches—Orr and Hay. Eight black and white drawings by other members of the art staff mark off the subdivisions of the book.

This Maroon and White is meant primarily to be a memory book. It is the editor's hope that you will want to turn to it many times in the future to bring back once more a rich pageant and parade of old familiar friends and places. Keeping this in mind, we have tried to give you not only pictures of teachers, club friends, and section-mates, but also glimpses of shops, laboratories, gymnasiums, the library, and other rooms that will remind you of both fun and hard work.

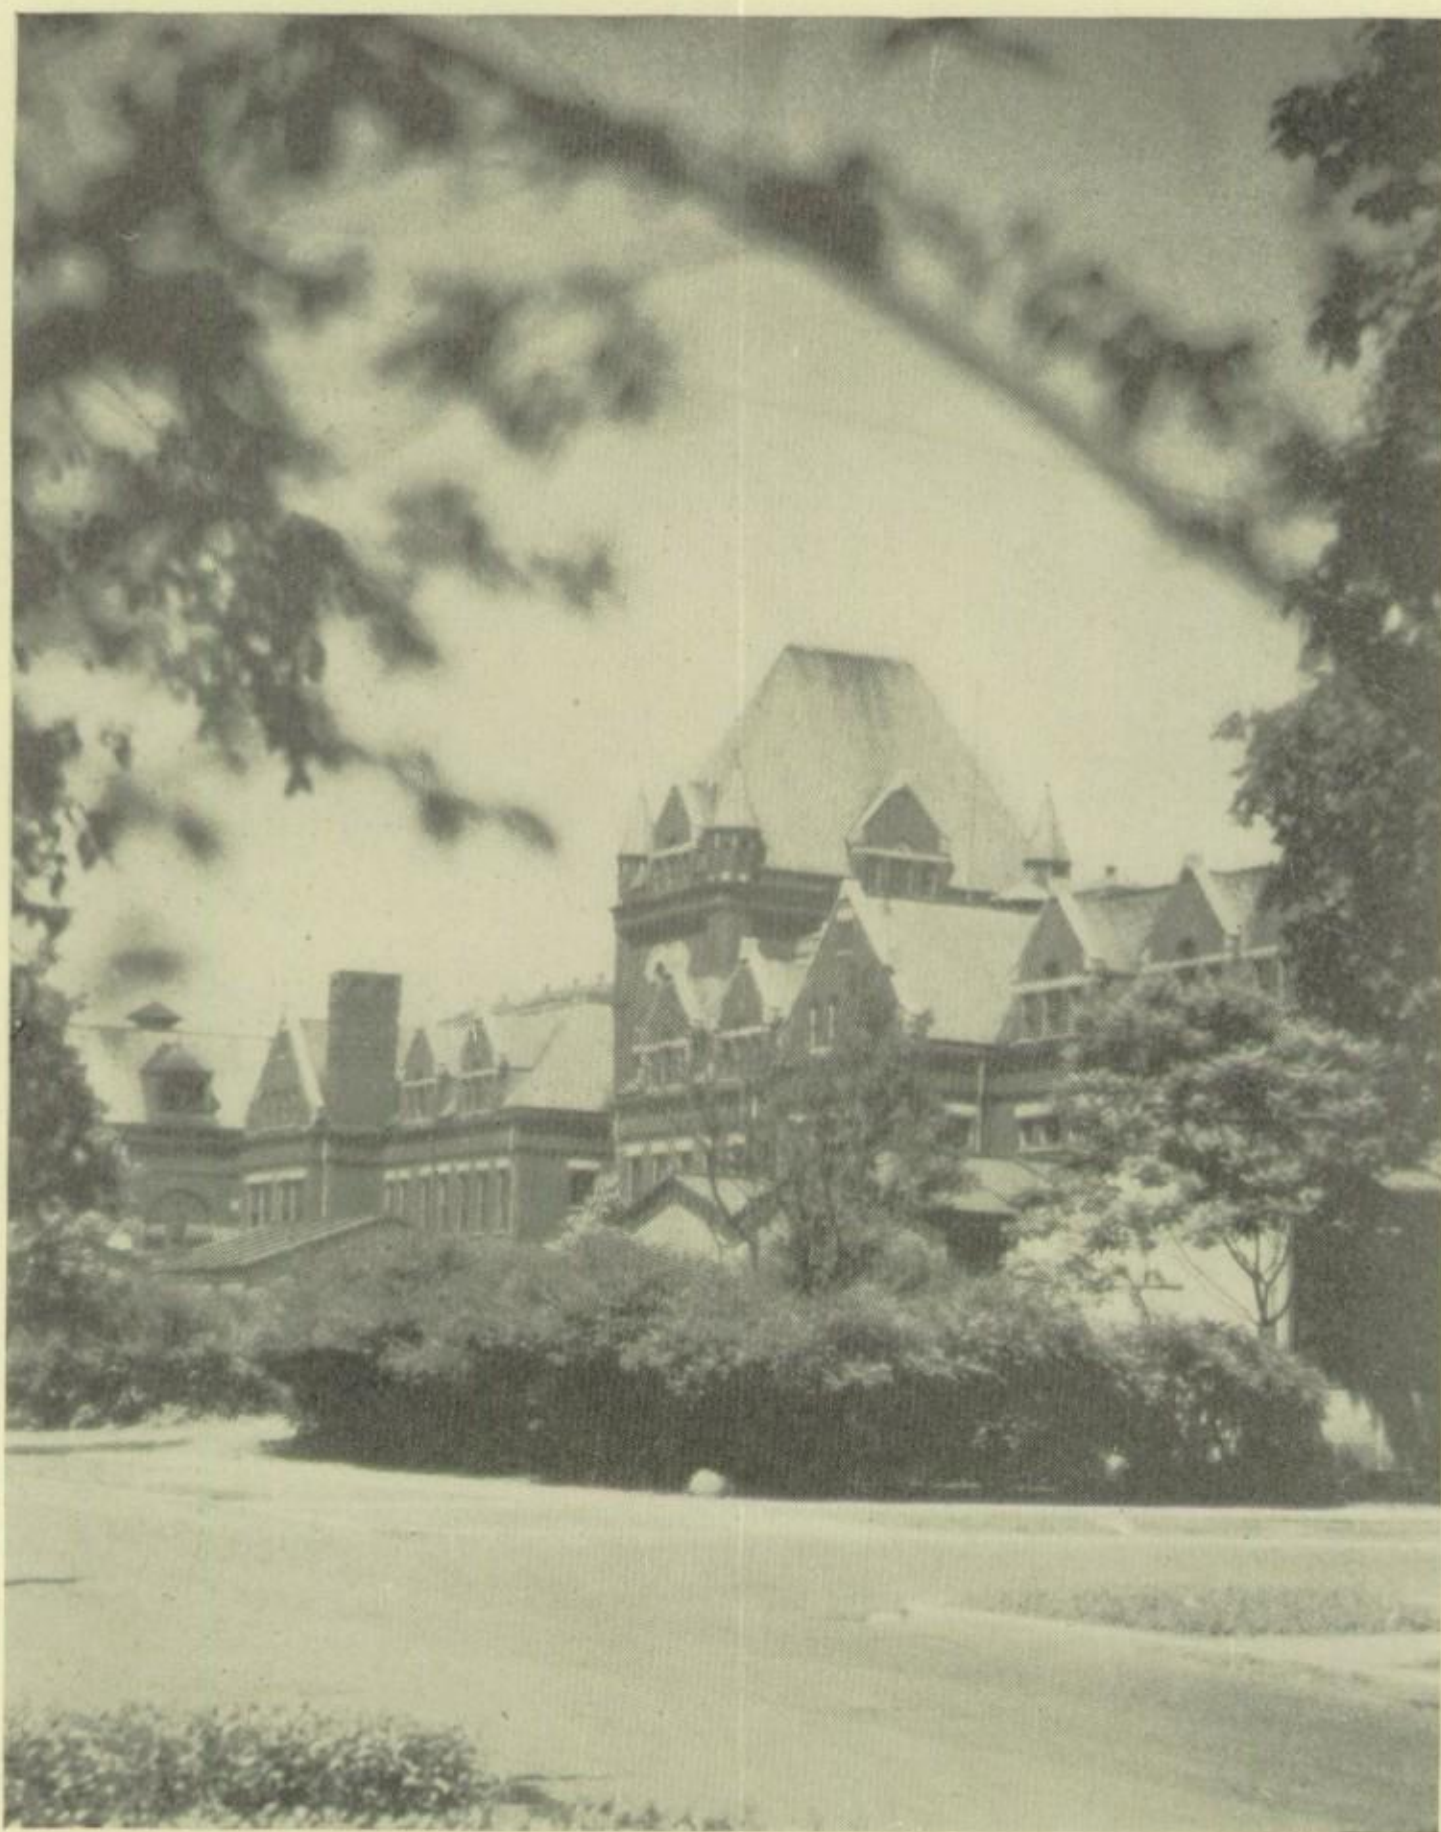

"Thank you" is expressed to the teachers who helped with editorial suggestions, and faithful backing during the selling campaign, and to the students who ordered to the extent of breaking all local sales records; to Miss Pellens, the clever and long-suffering art adviser; and to Mr. Berens, editorial and business adviser, who explained and explained so patiently. To Messrs. McKearnan, Dorin, and Madliner of the Russell Studio for the excellent photographs reproduced; to Mr. O'Neill and the Osgood Engraving Co. for the clear halftones and reproductions of art work; and to Mr. Niehaus of the Fred Klein Printing Co. for helpful and painstaking interest in all stages of the work. And last of all to Wesley Westerberg and Bob Kaska who helped with their suggestions and encouraging words, more than can be expressed.

And now as the excitement of "autograph day" approaches, we hope you will thoroughly enjoy seeing the many familiar faces and things that "just belong" to Austin; be sure to collect lots of signatures to heighten its value. We hope you will like the book, now; and ten years from now and whenever you turn to it again.

ETHEL DOOLITTLE, Editor.

MAROON AND WHITE

Even the trees helped us learn the Story of Progress.

ADMINISTRATION

*Furtherers of Progress, we Hope,
Through our Progress*

WILBUR H. WRIGHT
Principal

To the Class of 1929 ½ :

In dedicating your Class Annual to the Spirit of Progress, you are dedicating your future to Hope. This is good psychology. The inspiration of the Austin murals has become a part of your faith. Whether as an individual your life is to be one of progression or regression, the spirit of the murals or the lack of that spirit may determine.

And thus may you make Art minister to the deeper needs of your future life.

The Younger Generation

Officers, chairmen and athletes too
Belong to these classes, we'll leave it to you
To tell if you know whether they'll be
Prominent seniors in their class—'33.

There's Virginia Goodenow who plays in the band,
And Frances M. Kitzing whose work's in demand;
Eleanor Faye, almost "Miss Austin Times"
And Dosu Doseff who sings Glee club rhymes.

Donald Anderson and Dorothy Strong
Keep making the super right straight along;
Grace Shukcies and Catherine Powers
Must work on their homework for hours and hours.

'31 and one-half and then '32
Of these "progressed sophs" they're aren't a few;
Goldberg, Ghiselli, and Norton are three
Athletic students you all will agree.

Hilleve Lantz of debating team fame,
Our talented poet—Rago by name;
Betty Gislason, a swimmer of note
And then Norma Ahl who's won many a vote.

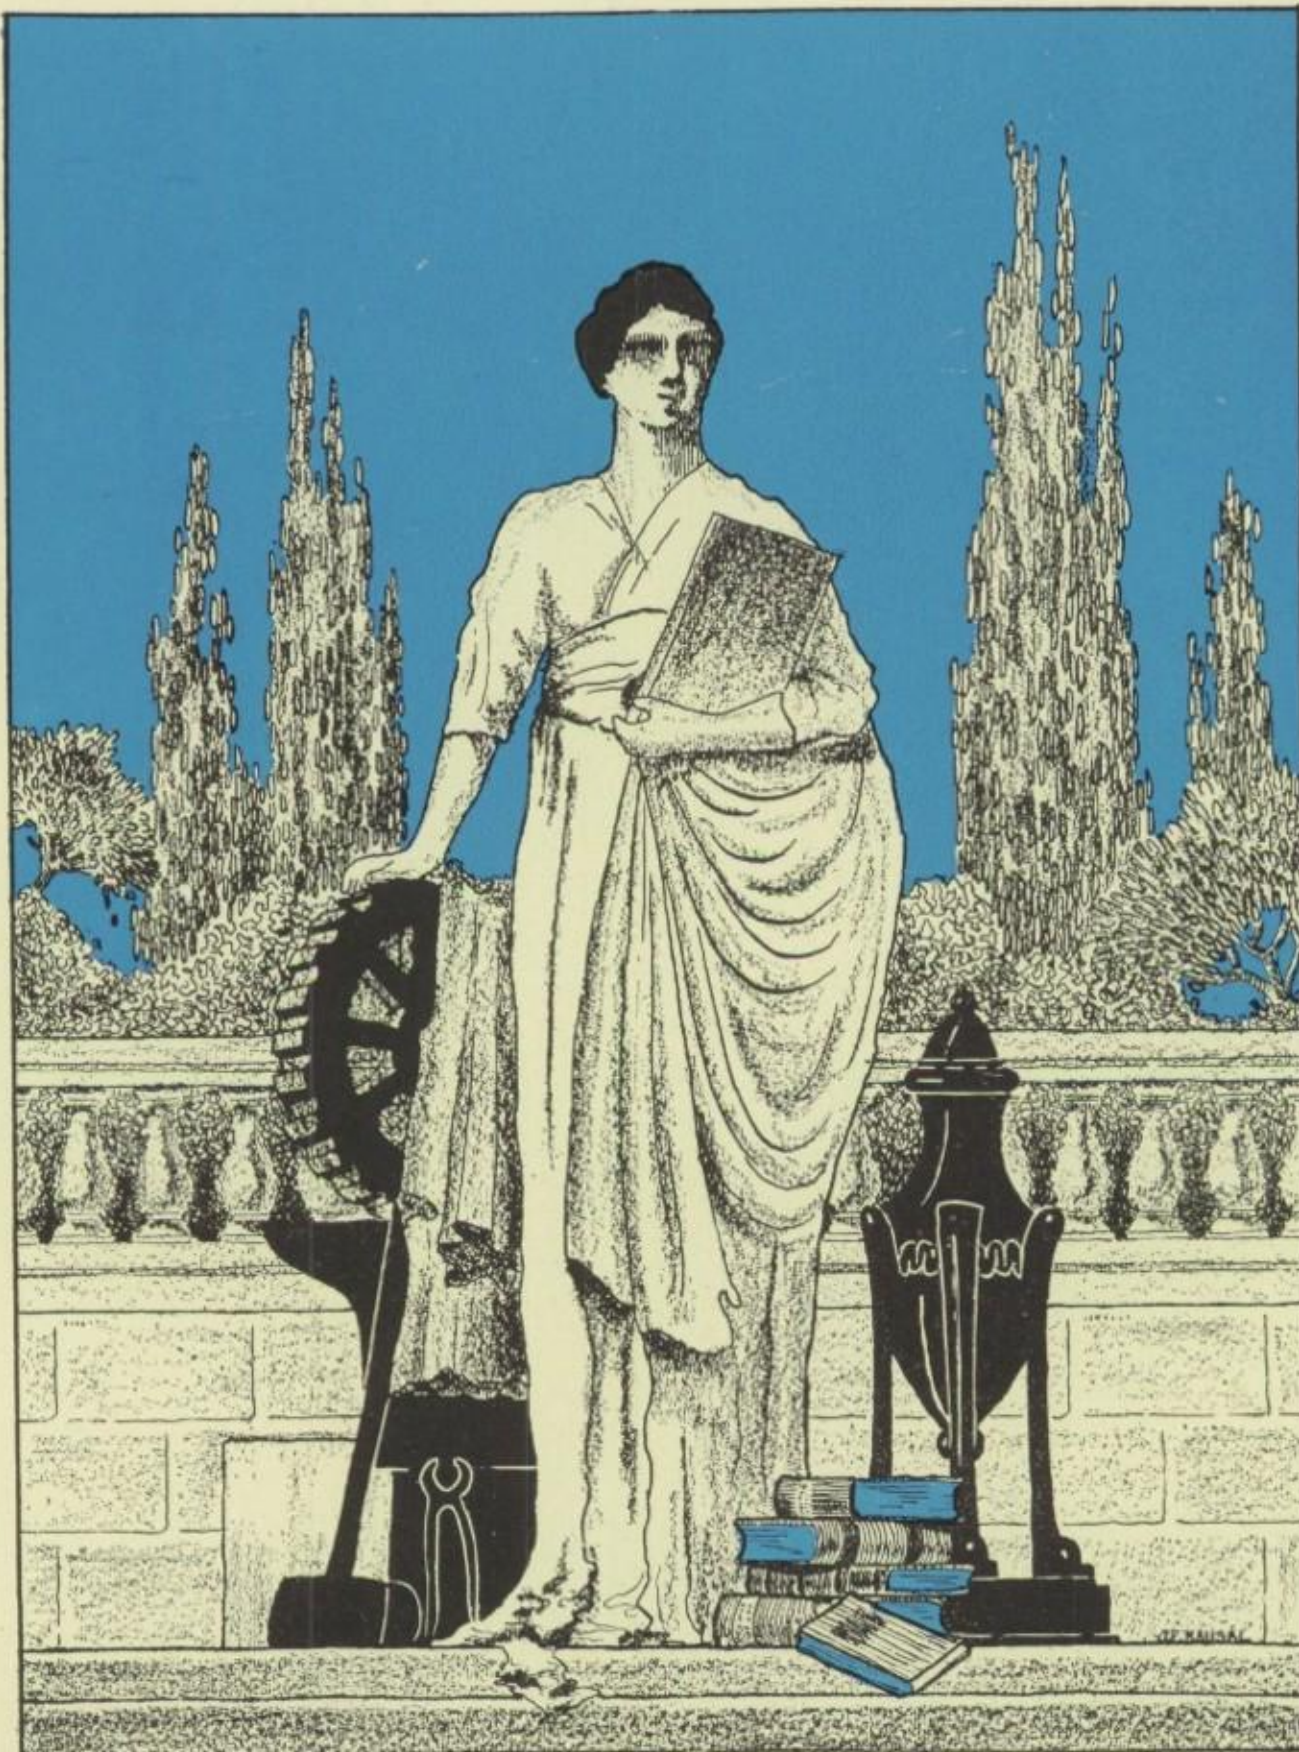

The super has, too, many "sophs" on its scroll,
There's Evelyn Otzko and Jeanette Rosenthal
Eloise Talbot and Helen Werkau
Each in her studies is pronounced a "wow."

All of these students and that many more,
If we mentioned them all 'twould be quite a bore,
Have contributed much to their class's fame,
If they don't succeed their's isn't the blame.

Go You Austin

Go, you Austin, go you Austin
The best school today,
We, its members should remember
All our good old days
Rah, Rah, Rah!
Finest in the land,
Shout, fellows, shout and sing
To beat the band.

Adelante

Adelante, adelante,
Escuela la mejor que existe hoy.
Debemos acordarnos de todos
Los buenos días pasados contigo.
Rah, Rah, Rah.
Adelanta tú Austin
Escuela finisima del mundo.
Griten, alumnos, griten y cauteu
Lo más posible.

I Austiniensis

I Austiniensis, i Austiniensis,
Optima schola hodie,
Nos participes eius reminiscamus
Omnes nostros bonos dies pristmos
Io triumphe, Io triumphe, Io triumphe
I Austiniensis, i Austiniensis,
Clamate, socii, clamate et cantate
Ut omnia superemus!

Allez Austin

Allez Austin, allez, Austin
Notre meilleure école
Que nous, ses enfants nous souvenons
De toutes nos bonnes journées
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Allez, Austin, Allez Austin,
Criez, enfants, chantez
De tout votre coeur!

Heil dir Austin

Heil dir Austin! Heil dir Austin!
Liebste Schule heut!
Wir die deinen stets gedenken
Unserer Schulzeit.
Heil dir Austin! Heil dir Austin!
Feinste in dem Land.
Lob bringt mit lautem Ruf
Nun allesamt!

Va Austin

Va Austin, va Austin
Scuola mighor ch'abbiamo:
Tutti i bei giorni passati
Nai pur ricordiamo
Rah, Rah, Rah!
Va Austin, va Austin
Di questa landa
La meglio: cantate, s'oppressa
Rimanga la banda.

Drama

The Little Theatre under the supervision of Miss Glynn is an organization whose aim is to teach all phases of dramatic work. The officers of the club are: Velva Horton, president; Martha Mead, vice-president; Mae Belle Finn, secretary; Ellen Ladegaard, treasurer. At the meetings, which are held twice a month, individual work and group productions are presented by the students.

The committees and their chairmen comprising the Little Theatre are:

|                     |                            |
|---------------------|----------------------------|
| Publicity Chairman  | Laura Sher                 |

The first large production undertaken by the Little Theatre, which was given a year ago under the direction of Miss Glynn, was "Daddy-Long-Legs." Many plays have been given since and the two which will probably be remembered longest are the safety play, presented at the Austin town hall, and "The Admirable Crichton," presented at the Austin high school auditorium December 13 and 14.

The Coaches

These four teachers can easily be recognized by any student of Austin as the physical education teachers.

Mr. Steffens, the athletic director of Austin, is well known to both alumni and undergraduates of Austin. He has been at Austin for quite a number of years and has served as an active instructor in all that time.

Mr. George Ring, who is completing his fourth year at Austin this semester, has charge of both the A squad football team and the heavyweight basketball team. Mr. Ring is also the faculty adviser of the Varsity A Club.

Mr. Rudolph Schmidt has only been a member of the Austin faculty for a few years, but is quite popular with the student body. Mr. Schmidt is coach of both track teams, senior and junior, and has developed some good material in that capacity.

Mr. Frank Heitman came to Austin a few years ago. For a short time he had charge of the track teams, but the last two years he has worked with the swimming teams and from the material that reported to him he has developed a group of stellar swimmers.

The four captains are all members of the Varsity A club—all lettermen and stars in their individual specialties.

Benny Sohn, most popular captain, leads the football team. Benny is a four letterman, three in football and one in baseball.

Elis Smith, the captain of the senior splashers, has won two letters and is one of the leading swimmers on Coach Heitman's squad.

James Dawson, the junior swimming captain, is easily the best on the junior team and thus deserves the right of being the leader of that aggregation. Dawson is also a skater on last year's city championship skating team.

Ted Fetherston, a three letterman, has won all the three awards on the track. Ted leads the senior tracksters and has been a member of the track team for three years.

Football 1929

Austin's 1929 football season will go down in history in very bold-faced type. With the fine playing of at least a half of a dozen experienced regulars supplemented by the spirited playing of new men of great promise, Coach Ring's finest Maroon and White eleven won games from Oak Park and from St. Mel, captured the first west section championship that Mr. Ring has enjoyed, and though it lost in the semi-finals to Lindblom and another out-of-town game to Moline, its record won for Austin a place of true prominence in city grid circles.

Captain Sohn was accepted by all the various papers who pick all-city teams as worthy of a position on their first team. Ben was all-city on the teams of the Daily News, the Evening American, and the Tribune.

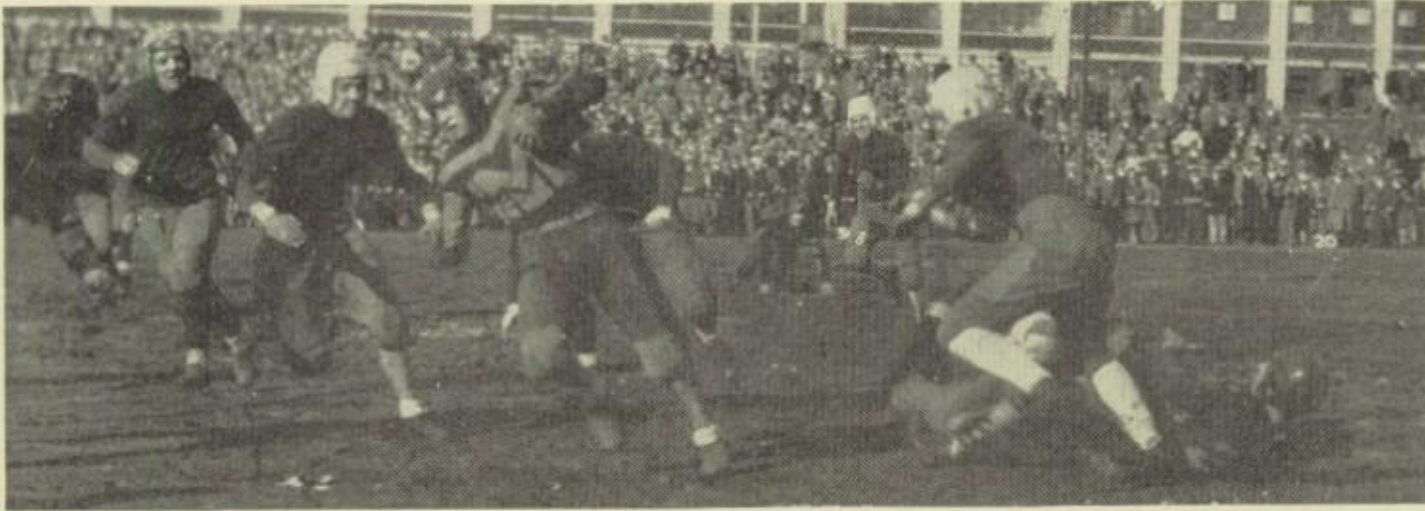

Few all-west section teams were named that did not contain even four or five Austinites—Sohn, Callies, Doner, Anderson, Brainard.

Football 1929

But a championship team is not made up of only five or six. Austin's line, though none too heavy, was noted for its fighting attack, especially led by Anderson, Doner and Brainard. There was the old fight, too, in Zepp and Norton, guards, and Koch, who played at center, in Al Gorman, who came to Austin an all-state lineman from Indiana, but who was unfortunately kept out of league games by injuries, and in Peifer and Kerner.

In the backfield, besides that inimitable pair, Sohn and Callies, who had their passes down to such perfection, there were Paul Armstrong, for whom the crowd was always sure to cheer when it seemed that a punt or a kickoff would have to be run back, and Bolas, who soon won a regular berth back of the line. Philip Yurgens played steadily at fullback along with Carl Manning, who started the season as a half back.

AUSTIN 14; OAK PARK 0

Captain Sohn, who upset Oak Park so sensationally in 1928, came back again in 1929 and backed by his pals of the previous year, and by about two-thirds of the thirteen thousand persons who were perched in every nook and corner of Oak Park stadium, he had the honor of leading Austin to its second straight victory over the time-honored village eleven, by a 14-0 score. Benny and Koch scored the touchdowns. It was the clever passing of Gil Callies, and the fine work in the line of Gorman, Doner and Anderson that were a big factor in the victory.

AUSTIN 6; ST. MEL 0

The passes which had been so important in defeating Oak Park were again successful on the following Saturday, October 5, though it was not until the last few minutes of the game that a productive passing onslaught marched the ball sixty yards to a touchdown and to victory. Sohn scored the six points on receiving Callies' pass from the twenty-five yard line behind the goal.

AUSTIN 26; McKINLEY 0

On the following Saturday, McKinley went down in defeat by a 26-0 score before the drives of the regulars in third quarter, though they had held Coach Ring's second stringers to a glorious scoreless tie during the first half of the game.

During this wild third quarter Paul Armstrong led the attack and scored two touchdowns, while Captain Sohn and Gil Callies were close behind, each scoring a touchdown. Strange to say, it was in this game that Gil scored the first points that he scored for Austin during the two years that he has starred on the eleven.

AUSTIN 8; MARSHALL 6

After weeks of heated speculation and doping, Sohn and Projansky, the two great west section stars, met before an Austin-Marshall homecoming day crowd of twelve thousand people at Mills Stadium, on November 2, and though each scored a touchdown, it was a safety by Doner, who smothered Projansky behind his goal on an attempted punt, that was the margin of an Austin victory and clinched for Coach Ring's charges the west section championship.

Benny scored his touchdown early in the game, and at the half it seemed that his six points would be enough. By breaking through and stopping Marshall plays before they were in readiness, the Maroons gradually pushed their opponents back until Doner broke through and felled Projansky for a safety.

Projansky led his teammates right back and by sheer power he pushed his way straight down the field for a touchdown and brought the score to its final 8-6.

AUSTIN 33; HARRISON 14

Passes galore were the dish at Mills Stadium on November 9 when the Maroons out-passed Harrison, the last hurdle in the title path, winning the game by a very thrilling 33-14 score. Sohn scored three touchdowns, while Koch and Yurgens each scored once. All the touchdowns except one were due directly to passes.

LINDBLOM 20; AUSTIN 2

The day was cold, and the gridiron was wet and the combination of Lindblom's weight and skill was too much for Austin on November 16, when the Maroons lost their first game and their great chance for the city title to the central section champs at Mills Stadium.

Lindblom, by its great power, easily piled up a great twenty point total despite the valiant efforts of the Ringmen. The two points which Austin was able to score and which kept them from a shutout were due to a safety by Doner, late in the game.

MOLINE 12; AUSTIN 0

The Ringmen treked out to Moline for a Thanksgiving day game with the down-state preps. They came back with their heads nodded after the westerners had handed them their second defeat and their first shutout. Very cold weather as well as an icy field hampered the passing attack for which the Maroons were so truly famous.

"B" Squad Football

Rear Row: Murphy, Mgr., V. MacDonald, McKay, P. MacDonald, Moss, Barham, Trakas, Bowler, Johnson, Kassay, McComb, Tolan, Byrant, Baer, Schmidt, Coach Collins.

The "B" squad, under the tutelage of Coach Collins, finished its first year by playing Tilden to a scoreless tie on a sea of mud. Neither Austin nor Tilden being satisfied with the score, they played another game ten minutes later and duplicated the score of the first game. After which they went home.

The first game of the season was also with Tilden. Austin lost 8-0. Proviso defeated them in the last few minutes of the game, scoring eight points to Austin's nothing. Finally tiring of losing, the team met and conquered St. Mel, 7-6. The Harrison games were complete failures. Austin lost both, 25-13, 38-6.

The Roosevelt game was also played on a muddy field. The Austinites outplayed them for the most part, but on the last play their old jinx came back and Roosevelt scored a safety on a fumble and won, 2-0. The team again journeyed out to Proviso and returned with a 13-0 win. Trakas and Baer scored.

The "B" squad played half of the McKinley game, holding the McKinley regulars scoreless and, for the most part, outplaying them.

The real purpose of the "B" team is not to win games, but to give the players experience and practice. For this purpose the squad is divided into four teams. Each team plays part of the game, and so all the boys have a chance to play. The squad is so divided that each team is about the same strength as any other.

Players who have showed promise on the "B" squad are "Greek" Trakas, "Moots" Baer, McComb, Boler, Devlin, Kassay, Moore, Braverman, Cohen, and O'Rourke. Two of the second squad made the regular team earlier in the season. These two are Brown and Houseman. Brown played as regular guard with the regulars, when Koch was injured.

The "B" squad has had scrimmage with the regulars all thru the season, and also the four teams played among themselves. The games with other schools are not rated as regular games, but only as practice contests. The squad is composed of freshmen, sophomores, and a sprinkling of juniors.

TRACK

With some of the best material in the last few years on the squad, the Maroon and White track men began the indoor track season last December with a meet with Harrison high school.

The local runners have some of the best dashmen and half-milers in the city. Art Kassay, Al Doner, and George Moore well represent the colors of the Maroon and White, in the dashes. The half-milers and distance runners are Hank Olyneic and Ed Brickman.

Many new men have reported to Coach Schmidt and expectations for the coming season are high.

Another new man who has shown up favorably this last semester is Al Lester, who placed seventeenth in the annual city cross country meet held in Washington park last November. Another cross-country runner who has improved with the added experience of hill and dale running is Jimmy Garrison, a junior of last season.

Meets were carded with the view of giving the spectators the chance of seeing the best in the city in the way of track talent.

The tracksters met Harrison, Lake View, Crane, and Marshall, and meets will probably be carded with Oak Park, Senn, Tilden, and perhaps Hyde Park.

The track team was strengthened by the addition of quite a number of football players. Among these are Al Doner, Art Kassay, George Moore, Al Gorman, Alberts, and Johnson.

Not much is known about the development of these men at present but hopes are high that they will soon become in shape so that they may actively compete in the dual meets that have been carded with the other teams in the city.

Graduation takes away from Austin the services of Captain Ted Fetherston, Hank Olyneic, Al Doner, Millie Maass, Ed Brickman, Bill Scharringhausen, Howie Asp, Ed Knackstedt, and Army Meister. These men have often been depended upon to bring to Austin a few needed points. With the graduation of these men Coach Schmidt will have to look for new dashmen, half-milers, quarter-milers, high jumpers, and shot putters.

The Austin swimming team's outstanding victory this year was the defeat of Tilden, a holder of interscholastic titles. The senior team also beat Harrison and tied Tilden, but the juniors were not quite as successful.

Dawson, who also swims breast stroke, placed in the tired swimmer's carry in the City meet. Chambers, swimming crawl stroke, placed in the seniors. Asp placed in the head carry, and Barton in the cross chest carry. The senior relay, composed of Chambers, Dussmann, Smith, Larson, Graham and Stewart, broke its own previous record by five seconds and, at the same time, placed in the City meet. Dussmann placed in the diving at the County meet.

Kolve and Westrich swim the breast stroke in the senior division and also the life saving events with MacDonald and Nosak. Larson and Vaupell are back stroke. Clute and Christians swim the "220", and Hayes is a fancy diver.

Varsity A

One of the most prominent clubs in school and the only Athletic Club, the Varsity A, is carrying on into its third successful year. Fred Brainard was the president for the semester just past, while Earl Wilson was vice-president, and Paul Armstrong was secretary-treasurer.

The size of the club was increased almost to three times the original membership when the members of the football squads were initiated last fall.

The club has done some noteworthy things this semester in helping the non-smoking law and the selling of tickets for the Austin-Oak Park football game last September.

The night of meeting at the Y. M. C. A. was changed from Wednesday to Monday, when it was found that many members could not attend the meeting at that time.

The Intramural tournament which is in full sway now is sponsored by the Varsity A group. Jimmy Magine and his committee is in charge of this tourney. This consists of a senior tournament for graduates, a general division for lower classmen and a freshman class for the beginning students.

The custom of wearing the letters on Wednesday has been continued from the former semesters. Thanks is expressed to the student body in respecting the wishes of the club in not wearing any foreign letters on this day.

The present G. A. A. is too young to have much history connected with it, nevertheless it should be of interest to those who are G. A. A. minded.

On November 19, 1925, the Girls' Branch of the Public Schools Athletic League in Chicago high schools was realized. Before this date there was no athletic connection between the girls of the Chicago high schools. Some schools, including Austin, had formed different organizations of their own with different awards for participation in girls' sports.

At Austin after a girl had been active for a year in all athletics and had been judged a good sport by a special committee, she was given a small triangle (its height was about three inches) as a token of the year's activity. Each year after that she was given a bar to add to her triangle.

Since the city-wide league has been organized it has provided for intermediate awards which encourage more girls to take part in the gymnastic work of their own respective schools.

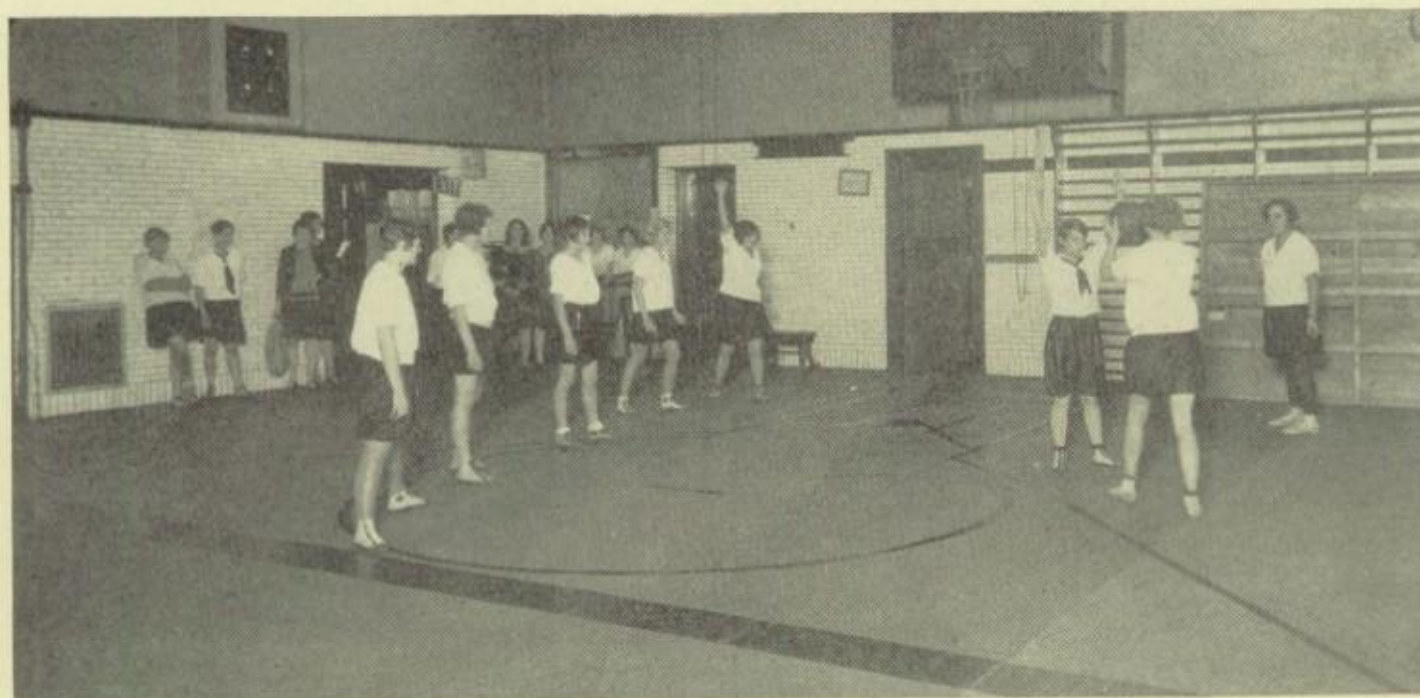

At this first meeting, seventeen schools agreed to join the league. Miss Noonan was the representative from Austin and up to the time she left this semester she attended the Board of Control meetings which are held every month.

This board determines and enforces the rules and regulations governing all competition. Interschool competition has been banned by the control board, but intramural rivalry has proven quite intense for all of the members.

Shortly after the organization of the G. A. A., Mrs. Kitzmiller took over the position of faculty adviser and was succeeded by Miss Hofmeister at the beginning of this semester, when she left.

The uniform regulations of the city organization requires that a girl earn 1,000 points—800 as required points and 200 as optional points—in order to receive her letter. When she has reached the 300-point mark she is eligible for a pin, and may receive her numerals at the 600-point mark.

This semester the members of the G. A. A. have been aided in earning their points since regular G. A. A. work has been given in the daily gym classes.

G. A. A.

Under the leadership of Miss Hofmeister and the officers, the G. A. A. has been sponsoring many activities, old and new, in the organization this semester.

Basketball, particularly, has taken up the time and interest of a majority of the members as a round-robin tournament has been the source of keen competition and rivalry among the different groups.

Miss Mazanec's afternoon G. A. A. classes held a tournament among themselves, while in the first section period classes the championship was sought by twenty teams.

Every semester the enrollment of the G. A. A. has increased until the membership list includes:

A new sport, field hockey, has been encouraged this semester among the girls and Miss Hofmeister hopes to give every girl an opportunity to learn it by next semester.

The "A" club, which is composed of girls who have earned their letters, boasts a membership of eleven for its first semester. However, there are twelve other girls who will probably have the required points before the new semester begins. This list includes Evelyn Benson, Frances Fouts, Dorothy Jorgenson, Lorraine Marshall, Harriet Martin, Florence Pallies, Frances Raeder, Doris Zack, Esther Fehrm, Teresa Schuh, and Eleanor Moran.

GREAT CLOSING REMARKS

Please, Miss Editor, don't advertise the Annual as "Best Ever."

THINGS WE SELDOM SEE

"Gil" Callies wearing a tie—
"Jimmy" Magine bragging about how good a basket ball player he is —a prep football expert leaving
"Bennie" Sohn off of all-city team
—"Nick" Zepp worrying about a test—"Andy" Anderson not worrying about a test—Coach
George Ring giving a lecture on the advantages of mud—Coach Moore of Lindblom giving a lecture on the disadvantages of mud.

* * *

"Things have come to a pretty pass," said the Marshall player, as Benny Sohn romped over the goal line.

* * *

DO YOU REMEMBER WAY BACK WHEN—

—Carl Sohn, Bennie's big brother was star fullback on the football team ('25-'26)?

* * *

—Austin was promised a new school building (1492)?

* * *

—Austin beat Peoria by a score of 3-0, on the aforementioned Carl
Sohn's 40-yard drop-kick ('26)?
Burt and Milt.

* * *

—Girls wore dresses that reached their knees (now they reach the ankles) ('28)?

Al-To.

* * *

—Ken Upton was captain of the football team ('26)?

* * *

—Austin had a soccer team
( '26)?

WE DON'T BLAME 'EM

"Gil" Callies tossed the footballs,
"Ben" Sohn was there to get 'em,
So rival teams were saying this,
"We're far from glad we met 'em.

"A run in time saves the nine."

The Student Council, one of Austin's most important factors in student government this semester, was headed by Mae Belle Finn, president, and Marvin Hasting, scribe. This year, as usual in fall, they executed plans for our Gala Day, appointing Harold Dahlstrom chairman of the committee in charge. Also under their direction, were the election of officers of the classes of '30 and '31, which were run off in a quiet, orderly manner, to the great satisfaction of the student body.

The council is made up of the various class presidents, the C. I. C. presidents, the president of the Interclub, a representative of the Austin Times staff, the president of the Girls' Athletic Association, and the president of the Varsity A. This semester's council is made up of Mae Belle Finn, president; Marvin Hasting, editor-in-chief of the Austin Times, scribe; Joe Weber, boy president of the C. I. C.; Louise Cermak, president of the Interclub; Fred Brainard, president of the Varsity A; Eleanor Gleason, president of the Girls' Athletic Association; Henry Olyniec, president of the class of '29 ½; Burton DuVal, president of the class of '30; Robert Kaska, president of the class of '30 ½; and Robert Bryant, president of the class of '31.

C. I. C.

The C. I. C., headed by Mae Belle Finn, girl president, and Joe Weber, boy president, has this semester accomplished a great deal in the various lines which are under its auspices.

The club started the semester with a big membership drive, in which representatives of 100% sections were awarded with gold pins.

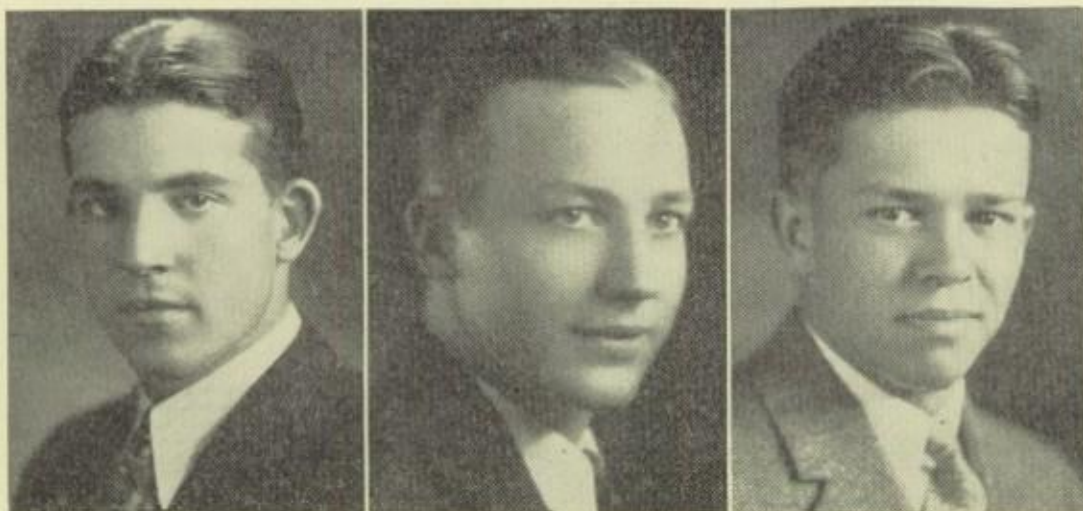

The next project was "Souvenir Day," remarkable for its orderliness and gay spirit. "Blind men," in ordinary life prominent boys of the school, sold maroon and white pencils, partially completing the amount of money needed for soap and towels.

The Red Cross and Thanksgiving collections, made with the help of the C. I. C., were bigger and better than ever.

In the field of school government the Student Court, non-smoking committee, and automobile club, all under the leadership of the C. I. C., were more active and more successful than ever before.

The most marked improvement of the year, however, was shown in the Christmas box work. Eighty-five dozen bandana handkerchiefs were sold to be put in the boxes to go to Oak Forest. There was also a decided increase in the number collected.

Calendar

September

- 3—We come back to our everlasting duty, school!
- 4—Classes somewhat disrupted and Eileen Grannan and "Sparky" Cervelli talk to their hearts' content.
- 6—Whee-ee-e!! Only 39 weeks left in this school semester.
- 10—Whoop-ee! A new typewriter has been purchased for the benefit of the nerves of various staff writers, etc.
- 11—Hank Olyniec, president of the class of '29 ½, back after giving England, Poland, France, Germany, Austria, and Switzerland the once over.
- 12—Miss Ryerson conducts Boys' Glee tryouts.
- 13—The Times sponsors "Miss Austin Times" contest among Austin girls. The maiden with most subscription votes wins; next twenty will be "Maids of Honor."
- 16—Bud Dahlstrom—now laugh!
- 17—Girl Reserves hold "freshie frolic" in social room. Some 157 freshies are duly served, by-the-by.
- 18—Freddy Brainard calls Varsity "A" Club to order for first meeting this fall at Y. M. C. A.
- 20—Football tickets now on sale for big event of the year, the Austin-Oak Park game.
- 24—New fire signals used for the first time.
- 25—Election for Class of '30 officers takes place today. Suspense? Naturally!

- 26—Class of '30 elects Burton Du Val as president; Doris Zack, vice-president; Virginia Hendriksen, secretary; Lillian Nygren, treasurer; Milton Lorenz, sergeant-at-arms.
- 27—Class of '31 holds election; a feeling of anticipation perceptible everywhere.
- 28—Austin wins over Oak Park in football again, 14-0! Whee-ee-e! Our sympathy goes out to the poor benighted creatures who are missing this second glimpse of heaven.
- 30—The race for "Miss Austin Times" continually grows hotter and more heavily contended.

October

- 1—Mr. Miller says to class that a box elder is pretty only when it is young; that it loses all its shape after 15 years or so.
- 2—Mr. Roth begs the Opera Club to hold "me" until he tells them to let go.
- 3—Swimming meet with Roosevelt proves exciting, good school spirit is shown by all.
- 4—Charlotte Gunkel wins title of "Miss Austin Times."
- 5—Three hundred and fifty boys royally entertained at "Freshie Funster" by Junior and Senior Hi-Y boys. Speeches, college songs, and a hearty push out of door accompanied by bar of candy.
- 7—Mary, in English, brings up the old proverb "a stitch in time saves nine." Claims it is an extremely remarkable statement—then adds—"it's the only one I've ever learned."

- 8—Joe Nardulli receives a beautifying "shiner" while playing basketball in gym.
- 9—Some teachers approve of having a dog in class providing he remains "attentive to the class subject."
- 10—"Bud" runs out of gas over on Waller, walks to school, deposits slicker in locker, buys gas, perambulates back to car, and then remembers that the keys remain in slicker.
- 11—Ruth Robertson uses all known methods of ridding school of a beautiful police dog as large as herself: candy, fruit, pretty names, pleadings, commands, etc.
- 14—Mae Belle Finn yells, "Oh, Howie, I didn't know you caddied," when espying him carrying clubs near clubhouse.
- 15—In class—"My hair is falling down."
Teacher—"That's all right, I'll pick it up."
- 17—Ed. Rohter reveals his real nature when in a moment of fiendishness he tosses a book out of the door of the bookroom at Anderson, narrowly missing the nose of a very surprised teacher—to wit, Mr. Crew.
- 18—Mr. Heitman at last gives way to the strain and lays for the person who has playfully tossed his Bulletin Board signs into the basket and caught—?
- 19—Austin's football team wins over Crane, whee-ee-e!
- 21—By this time all of the freshies have their dear little brief cases.
- 22—Have any of you noticed the new invention around school, namely: the various colored "Yo-Yo's"? Group pictures postponed.
- 23—"Look at my dress! See the paint those careless painters spilt on it."
- 24—The band plays so vigorously nowadays in the social room that the poor little bulbs sometimes give way to the pressure and descend in a shower of glass on the floor below; the lamp shades follow, drifting lazily downward.
- 25—Charles Fisher announces that he knows absolutely nil about Miss Willis' question, not even a nickel's worth. That worthy lady, comments that, like the Alaskans, the smallest coin she uses is the quarter.
- 28—We fooled the weather man and took group pictures today even if it was threatening.
- 29—The weather man retaliates with rain; no group pictures.
- 31—Gypsies, pirates, representatives of most of the nations in the world, and men and women who stepped out of the fashion plates of 50 years ago or more, wandered around the hall today. (Some even went into the class rooms! Ee-majin!!
The Halloween issue of the Times comes out in pumpkin color.

November

- 1—Back to conventionality in matter of dress; rather odd after yesterday.
- 2—Our wonderful football team wins its victory over Marshall. One more game to go for the west section championship title, boys, keep at 'em!
- 6—Mr. Berens, in speaking of the difficulty in determining a true American's origin, wanted to know whether his should be given to the census inspector as Swiss, Scotch, French or German; the immediate answer was, "Scotch, of course!"
Club pictures after long delay were taken today.

- 7—Whee-ee-e! the group pictures for the Annual are all finished today. Due appreciation given to those who brought hot food stuffs to the business manager and company. Thanks, Bob!
- 9—"We (the football team) won the game from Harrison! We are the proud possessor of the west section championship! Yea, team!"
- 12—A new bean has been supplied to flavor the bean soup in the lunch room.
- 13—Botany teacher: "Red peppers are extremely 'hot,' but somehow people do not go 'wild' over them!"
- 14—The Seniors are leading in the snapshot race! Come on there Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshies!
- 15—All out for the game tomorrow! Mr. Berens: "I would go to Alaska, if, on account of overpopulation, I should by any chance get 'spilled out' of America."
- 16—We will concede that Lindblom has a good football team, too! Lindblom 20—Austin 2.
- 18—Glad to see Mason Freeman back. Miss Johnstone receives shock of her life when he turns in his three weeks of back homework first day.
- 19—The Prom bids are on sale and the boys are going at it with the result that—
- 20—The traditional tin lizzies make their appearance on the streets with radiators steaming above and below due to sudden cold wave.
The Juniors climb into the lead of snapshot contest.
- 21—Ethel Freeman saunters along very demurely and sweetly in new long skirt sports dress. Beryl Collins yells down hall, "Hey, Ethel, you're losing something!"
Rather embarrassing?

- 25—Class of '31 holds first social 8, 9, and 10 periods.

Ethel Doolittle, Ethel Freeman, Jerome Pinkus, and Marv Hasting spent an enjoyable week-end at Champaign while attending the Illinois State High School Press Association convention.

- 26—Mrs. Kelly in history class: "Pass your maps forward."

Pupil: "Sorry, but we really can't comply."

- 30—The girls lost extra poundage gained from their Thanksgiving dinner dancing at the Prom. The programs were attractive in the shape of a large "A," colored maroon and white.

December

- 2—Who is going to see "Romeo and Juliet" and "Il Trovatore," the teachers want to know?

- 3—"Tickets for 'The Admirable Crichton'" echoes down the hall.

The football team holds reception and are given as favors teenie-weenie footballs.

- 4—Mr. Tiernan to first period class, "Ah, here is Normah Jane, the late Miss Chidley." Now, what did he mean?

- 5—Peggy Jones in answering Mrs. Nardi's question as to where her report card was, stated that her mother had placed it on the buffet, and consequently she was unable to reach it.

- 6—The Austin Chess team plays and wins its first meet this year against Crane high school.

Twenty-two representatives of Austin attend National Scholastic Press Association at Hotel Knickerbocker. Roundtables all day; then the banquet and dancing followed, furnished by the excellent Austin High School Social Orchestra.

10—Slava Doseff awarded a Rosenwald scholarship to the University of Chicago on a basis of scholarship and civic achievement. Are we proud of her? "And how!"

12—Christmas boxes are being distributed by the C. I. C. to be filled with little goodies and sweets for the men of Oak Forest.

13—"She passed a street-car on the left" and so they all went to the dilapidated police station of River Forest according to wishes of Policeman W. E. Gray. Al-To drove Rose to her home for $20 necessary to free guilty Jane.

Track meet with Harrison—result: Seniors won, Juniors lost.

Austin boys won eight first places out of twelve entered upon in fourth annual band solo contest.

16—"The Admirable Crichton" was liked and enjoyed by audiences both Friday and Saturday nights. Remember "Tweeny" and "Lady Mary?" Opera tickets distributed to pupils.

17—Christmas boxes with attractive covers and wrappings of every description pile ever higher in social room.

Seven absentees—"The people of River Forest versus Jane Orndoff—" Memories? We're minus ten dollars!

19—Blizzard and 60-mile gale hits Chicago: Miss Willis breezes in decked out in a stocking cap and mitts reminding us once again of Alaska. Then, of all pleasant surprises this one wins: "School dismissed for remainder of day at 10:10 A. M." Annoying??

20—"Thanks so much"—lovely perfumes, hankies, etc.! Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!! See you next year old top!! Two weeks of rest ensue—the auditorium gets painted.

January

6—Noisy Christmas neckties, scarfs, and flashy socks make their debut into A. H. S. society.

7—"Take back your Christmas jewelry, my neck is turning green."

9—"The teachers are beginning to use the age old motto: "They shall not pass!"

13—Cram-cram-cram-mm-m. And how!

15—Oh! My Finals! Three of them today! Just feature that!!

16—As one walks down the hall he notices the faint odor similar to that of wood burning; never fear, 'tis not the dear old building, but on the contrary, the poor benighted pupils over-exercising their thinking facilities.

17—Band concert; Capt. Schildhauer and boys share honors.

21—Lillian Janke, taking pity on Bill Lent's struggle with his French, whispers loudly the translation: "Kiss me, kiss me!" Ee-magine her embarrassment.

22—The teachers suddenly (?) become hard-hearted, refusing to disclose results of the "finals."

23—'29 1/2 Annual surpasses all others. Business-manager sleeps in peace — Editor-in-chief becomes popular over-night.

24—"Gee, but I like this magazine issue of the Times, Sue."

27—Lillian, our honorable annual staff typist, realizes that she can't depend on the spelling of the typewriter.

29—Class-night, and you that were there know the rest. Thanks, Harry.

30—Picture our dignified seniors, "Rudy" Liska, Ruth Peterson, "Herby" Reinish, Bruce Graham, Vivian Mathison, Hank Olyniec, Louise Cermak, Alma Mugridge, Ted Fetherston, Gene Bond, as meek little "freshies" once again.

31—Commencement.

MAROON AND WHITE

SO UNCONCERNED!

NICE PEOPLE — WHAT?

Town Crier of '29½

Seven o'clock and all is well—
But pause a moment while I tell
Of each grand and glorious, lovely deed
Performed by this class
It's volumes they need.

Leaders? Let's see. Yes, five in all,
Hank's presided, spring and fall.
Ethel, Allen, Louise and Gene
Each does his duty
In a slang way "keen."

Athletes are waiting, impatient, in line,
Waiting for Benny to give them the sign.
Freddie "My Pal" and Andy who sings,
Are a part of that line,
So famous, of Ring's.

Civic duties not easy to win,
Lucky Joe Weber and Mae Belle Finn,
Slava's the one, they are proud to call theirs',
Who won a great honor,
Despite other cares.

"Admirable Crichton" turned out OKay.
And Louis we'll laud for many a day.
Glaser and Miller, oh, they were screams,
And between every act
Doug Horne shifted scenes.

Talented people—why ask who?
Ingeborg Hendrickson sings often for you.
Joe and "hees feedle" are famous an' 'ow
But nothing like they'll be
Some ten years from now.

Read the list? I'm sorry, too long.
Just one minute, I'll close my song.
Hirt needs a place, and Asp does, too;
Dussman, last mentioned,
And now—"Adieu."
